

St Helen's Church, North Kensington is an Evangelical Anglican church, located just up the road from Grenfell Tower in a vibrant and diverse area of West London. Our congregation numbers about 40-60 people each week, from a wide variety of cultures and social backgrounds. We are currently seeking to take our ministry up a gear, by looking for godly and enthusiastic self-starters for the following roles:

Women's & Families Worker

Role to include:

- Discipling and providing pastoral care for women of all ages and stages in the church family
- Equipping women for ministry and evangelism
- Developing new opportunities for outreach to women and families in the community (e.g. mums & tots, afterschool groups)

Competitive salary, depending on experience, plus accommodation available.

Office and Buildings Manager

Role to include:

- Keeping the church running day to day (including finances, publicity, emails/phone, rotas, etc.)
- Overseeing building projects and maintenance, and ensuring general regulatory compliance
- Managing church and hall bookings

Full time or part time applicants welcome to apply.

Ministry Apprentice (Sept 18)

Role to combine part time study (e.g. the Cornhill training course) with ministry experience, shaped on the applicant, but with a focus on Children and Youth work. Ideal first step for trying out Christian ministry.

Living grant and accommodation available.
